

Songs Sinatra Sang

THE CAPITOL RECORDS YEARS

“ring-a-ding-ding!”

Join us for a concert of jazz instrumental interpretations paying tribute to the “Capitol Years” of Frank Sinatra’s career.

NICK DeCARLIS QUARTET

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 2021 / 7:00 P.M. (doors open 6:30pm)

FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 2021 / 11:00 A.M. (doors open 10:30am)

Join us as we explore the sounds, sights & scene of Sinatra in the 1950’s—an unmatched flurry of creative output which resulted in the so-called “concept albums”—and one of the greatest showbiz comebacks in history. The Nick DeCarlis Quartet will present jazz instrumental interpretations of timeless songs recorded by Frank Sinatra for Capitol Records, combined with narration and visuals providing interesting and amusing context to the music.

Nick DeCarlis, cornet
Thomas Royal, piano
Ernie Ealum, bass
Bill Cain, drums

Historic Friday Musicale
645 Oak Street, Jacksonville, FL
Admission is FREE
Donations are Appreciated!

Due to reduced seating capacity please RSVP.

Jeff Tawney: (904) 355-7584 or jeff@fridaymusicale.com

Historic Friday Musicale is Florida’s oldest musical organization, founded in 1890. Donations help support free public concerts, scholarships to aspiring young musicians, summer music camps, and community outreach to local schools. Auditorium rentals available for charity, social, and corporate events.